NEWRY

Florida Man's Questions Answered
Editor, I was very much amused while reading the last issue of your paper, in the column of "seen and heard" that a man (poor thing) from Florida was interested in Newry items. I thought curiously and believed that woman and am glad to know the difference; however, I am always ready to answer questions when possible, so "here goes". Now since these items were written about the man hauling pulp for P. W. Walker, we have learned his name was Kimball from West Bethel. The squares, of course there are a number of kinds, doweled, spool, bane, as he spoke and catch work, but these squares are wood 1-1/2 by 8 inches long, 49 inches long, put in cars at Bethel for Lincoln, where they are made into boot heels, and they also make two squares, 1 inch by 2-1/2, 4 feet long and are sent to Burlington, Vt. They are saved in a portable mill by Mr. Campbell of Andover and the timber is from land owned by Carl Croteau.

Wade Robertson was a Sunday caller at H. R. Powers'.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hakala and son, Robert, were at South Paris last Sunday.

Walter and Beards Powers called on Mr. Blanchard at North Newry last Friday. There is no family in his house this winter, so he lives alone and is very feeble, being nearly eighty-seven years of age.

Last Sunday was a model March day, making the old saying true that "March came in like a lamb".

The settled fast for a few days and there is quite a lot of water in the roads.
